

SALUTES:

Amber Barajas

“Well, let me start by saying that I know this is the right thing for me, but it’s HARD AS HELL!” This was the opening sentence from the first letter that Amber sent her extended family at TRAC after arriving in Great Lakes, Illinois at the Naval Training Center for boot camp. Amber is a 21 year old young lady who has always set her goals high in life and has done an incredible job achieving them. After working very hard going to college full time, holding down multiple jobs, and working her way through the TRAC transitional living program; Amber made the decision to enlist in the NAVY. On October 19, 2007, Amber will graduate from boot camp and begin her career in the NAVY. All of Amber’s friends and coaches at TRAC are so proud of her and all that she has accomplished and will achieve in her future! Amber is a great role model and is inspiring others to work hard and achieve their dreams too!

Jen,
Thanks for never giving up
on me!
I owe my success that I will accomplish in life to you and Desi.
You guys never turned your backs on me. And now thanks to that I'M IN THE NAVY BABY
/ /
how many people
can say they're in the Navy ☺

Jennifer Grant and Desi Cohn, TRAC's Site Coordinator and Residential Services Manager, will be head to Illinois on the 19th of October to proudly attend Amber's Graduation!
